A message from the head teacher...

Dear Parents, firstly thanks to all parents who came to celebration assembly on Friday for our first 'proper' celebration assembly of our new values. Be Passionate, Be Caring, Be Healthy, Be Successful are our new values and it's great to see children put them into action in the early weeks. It's essential they form the bedrock of everything we do as a school.

Friday was also our SIAMs inspection which takes place every 5 years and assesses the Christian vision of the school and how well R.E and collective worship are delivered in school. Our inspector saw us all gathered in the church and I am sure he was impressed by the community coming together like we do every Friday. I'll send on his full report when I get it through, it should be with you in a month.

Just a reminder that our Ofsted report is also due for publication in around a month so expect that one at around the same time. It's been a busy few weeks here at Lewknor!

Attendance has been great of late so clearly the warmer weather is having an impact—long may it continue!

Today was also day one of SATs week for Y6 children so good luck to all of them, I'm sure they will do their absolute best and hopefully they will have as calm of a week as possible. We have planned in a nice post SATs treat to Chessington so rewards are coming! I have taken children twice before and it's a great day out.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Dear God Help us to value and care for everyone in our school. Help us to learn and play together. Help us to take a pride in all that we do. Help us to be the very best we can be. This is our school. Let love, peace and harmony be here always.

Amen
