A message from the head teacher...

Dear parents, firstly thanks for your donations on Red Nose Day, we raised £60 which isn't too bad all in all for a small school.

In other fundraising news, we are going to be doing a sponsored walk again this Summer to raise money for FOLS, the date will likely be in the last two weeks of term but we'll be in touch with more concrete details in due course. I'm told it raised lots of money previously so let's hope we can get lots of sponsorship and raise a great amount again.

It's only 2 weeks until the Easter holidays now and this term has completely flown by, I feel like I've been at the school for years even though it's been only two terms. Just a reminder the last day of term 4.4.25 is a half day so school finishes at 1330.

I had a clear-out in my office this week and along the way I found a school log book that dated back to the 1890s, it's very humbling to read all the logs from the head teachers of Lewknor's past and the challenges they faced. They closed the school for 3 weeks in 1893 because of influenza which certainly puts the COVID lockdowns into perspective!

Have a great week and I'll see you at the mother's day assembly on Friday at 0900.

Mr Powell

Evacuation letter from 1945...

In a log book, we found a letter from a London Paddington school manager to Lewknor's headteacher Mrs Scott thanking her and her staff for helping evacuated children in 1945. I sent the letter to the school in Paddington via Instagram and they are going to show it to their Y6s.
